

BLACQUIERE - The death occurred at Moncton City Hospital on Aug. 10, 1997, of Albin Emmanuel Blacquiere of 441 North Market St., Summerside, aged 90 years. Dear husband of Adelaide, Gallant. Loving father of Marjorie, Robert, Chester of Summerside, Ernest of Summerside, Wilson, Rose, of Toronto ON, Edna (Robert, Alfano of North Quincy MA, Edmund, Barb, of Summerside, Nancy, Preston, Silliker of Summerside, Donna, Roch, Randon of Edmonton AB and Kenneth of Summerside. Also lovingly remembered by 26 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. Predeceased by two sons, Elzéar and Clifford. Also predeceased by brothers Glorice, Élie, Donat and Clovis and sisters Rosanna, Yvonne and Edna. Resting at the East Prince Funeral Home, 295 Pope Rd., Summerside, until Wednesday, Aug. 13, then to St-Paul's Church for funeral mass at 10:30 am. Interment to take place in St-Paul's Cemetery. Visiting hours will be Tuesday, Aug. 12, from 2-4 and 7-9 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations in Albin's memory may be made to the Canadian Diabetes Association or a charity of your choice.

-
ALBIN E. BLACQUIERE - The funeral service of Albin E. Blacquiere of 441 North Market St., Summerside, husband of Adelaide, Gallant), was held on Wednesday, Aug. 13, 1997, from the East Prince Funeral Home to St-Paul's Parish where the funeral mass was celebrated by Rev. John Lacey, assisted by Deacon Cyrus Gallant. The homily was delivered by Father Lacey. The readings were given by granddaughter Linda Jay and daughter Edna Alfano. The gospel reading was given by Deacon Gallant and the prayers of the faithful were read by Edna Alfano. The church choir sang Be Not Afraid with organist Owen Kelly. Linda Jay sang The Lord Is My Shepherd and daughter Donna Lee Randon sang Remember Me, Prayer of St-Francis, Going Home and How Great Thou Are. Cross bearer was Léonce Arsenault. Candle bearers were Cecil Cameron and Clarence Doyle. Incense bearer was Urban Cameron. Honorary pallbearers were Preston Silliker and Bob Chester. Pallbearers were Ernie Blacquiere, David Silliker, Mike, Chris, Stephen and Victor Sauve. Flower bearers were Trent, Jason and Lisa Blacquiere, Vanessa Sauve, Tara and Dawn Jay. Also in attendance were members of the Catholic Women's League. Interment took place in St-Paul's Cemetery with Father Lacey officiating. A vigil service was held Tuesday evening with Father Lacey. The eulogy was given by brothers-in-law Preston Silliker and Bob Alfano. Brother-in-law Bill Gallant sang Lord Jesus Of You I Will Sing and Donna Lee sang Going Home.